*School is a fact of life. It was, is,
and will be.*

(top) Mass confusion? Yes. But down this crowded stairway is the only way out.

(below) Lunch is the time and place for friends and fun, not to mention eating.

(bottom) Juniors Lisa Lane and Mona Jewell seem to be enjoying themselves in the library.

... And when it finally hits us, we somehow, actually begin to enjoy ourselves!

For six hours each day, barring weekends, holidays and snow days, school becomes our second home.

During the day, and after school, everyone has a chance to take a break.

(above) To some, smoking is relaxing. Here all those allowed, take time out for a cigarette.

(right) Senior Kim Kenworthy helps junior Kurt Giesler, who seems to be having a little trouble.

(left) Let's see, if I put that there, and this there . . . HELP!

Spirit has roamed the halls here for a long time. The classes before and probably those in the future

(below) The girls soccer team returns to the bleachers, after their introduction.

(below right) Jana Johnson shows she has spirit, as she shouts '82 to aid the senior class in winning the spirit stick.

(below middle) The classes unite! Pep rallies are a time when we all come together.

... but the spirit has never been greater than now!

(top) The Pom pom squad performs a difficult routine.

Having something to enjoy has always been a large part of school . . .

Ms. Romanic shows her teeth for her biology class.

Mary Wood enjoys a victorious football game.

Mrs. Johnston gets caught eating every bit of a 300 calorie doughnut.

... whether it's talking, running, giving tests, or just sitting around.

As one of her many duties as a teacher, Ms. Weber watches the halls for misguided students during classes.

The track team listens attentively to some encouraging words from Coach Kuhn.

Friends socialize in the lobby as Ms. Huff's class watches.

Dedication

Teaching. The ultimate profession in self sacrifice. Being a teacher or administrator rarely brings praise or a healthy income.

But it is to the dedicated few that we, the editors of the Hi-Jacket, present this book. To the math and science teachers, to the music, business, foreign language teachers, to the social studies and English teachers, to the entire faculty and administration that make this school a home away from home. You have contributed to our learning experience, in the past, and now. We have you to thank for making our future a lot brighter.

(right) A familiar sight for all those who use Liberia Drive to come to school.

Who says the faculty doesn't participate? Mr. Ferebee really becomes a part of the act.

Administration

To be a part of the administration takes a lot of energy and time. The few that remain tireless in doing this job are dedicated to the working of this school.

The guidance counselors, the financier, the office secretaries that can answer any question asked, all play an important role in making our school what it is.

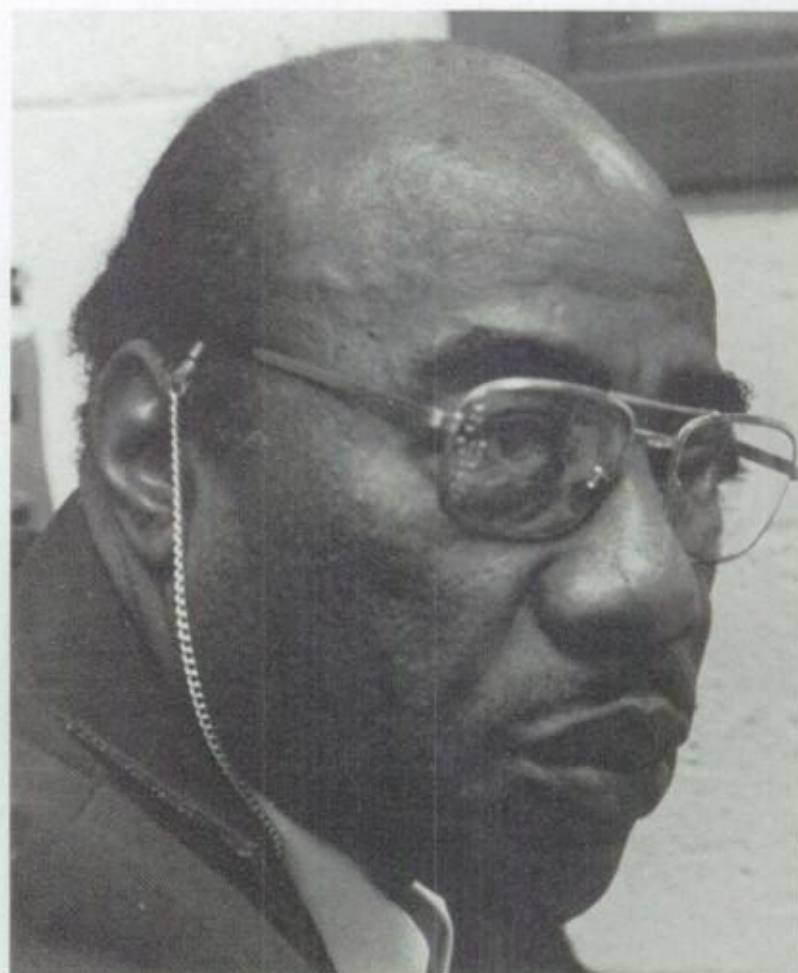

(top left) Mr. Ferrebee works very hard at his job. (above) Mrs. Ellis has a tough job, but she manages to handle it. (far left) Mrs. Clater gives assistance whenever needed. (left) Mrs. Matheny finds the office and administration helpful.

Seniors

This Is It!

This is a toast and a tribute to us!

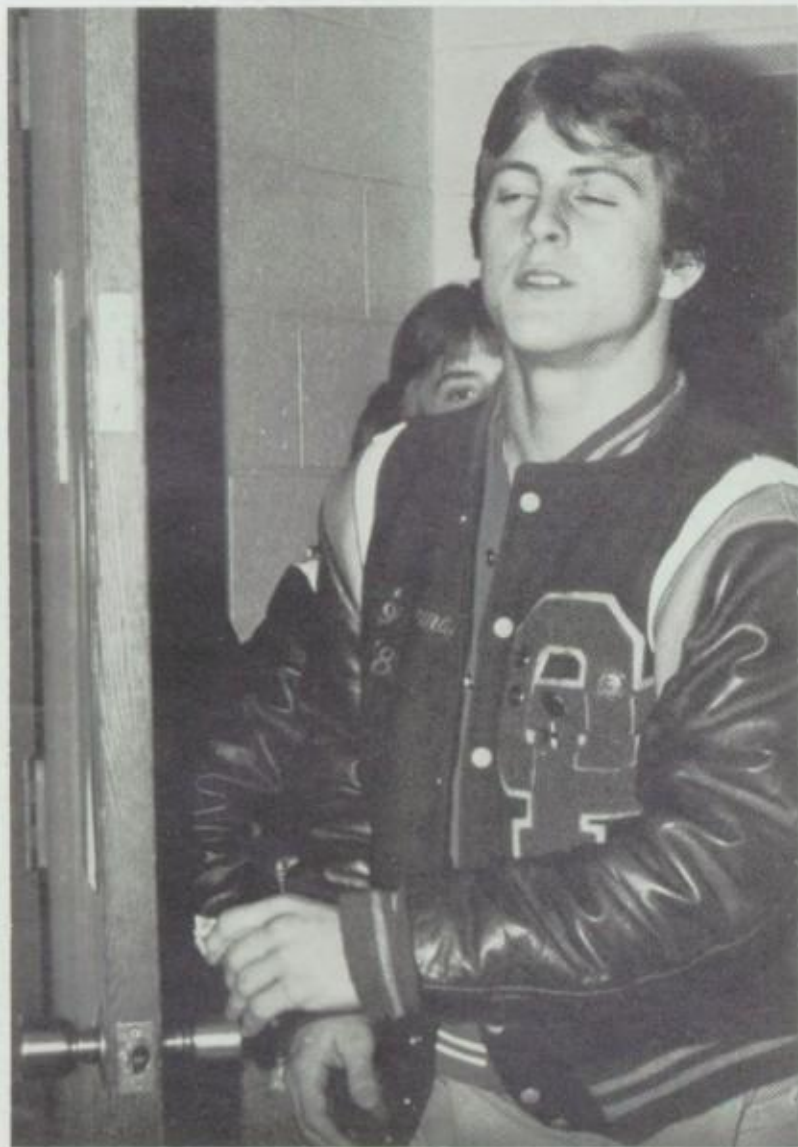

It began on a September day in 1978, when we brightened the hallways of this building with our presence. It was then that the one and only class of '82 was formed.

Through the first year, we became united. Although teased and intimidated by all those ahead of us, we, because of our spirit, togetherness and sense of loyalty as class, somehow rose above it.

The second year was a course in mere survival, a time which we spent truly in a state of limbo. The third year we experienced utter confusion. We knew where we wanted to go, but somehow we weren't pointed in the right direction.

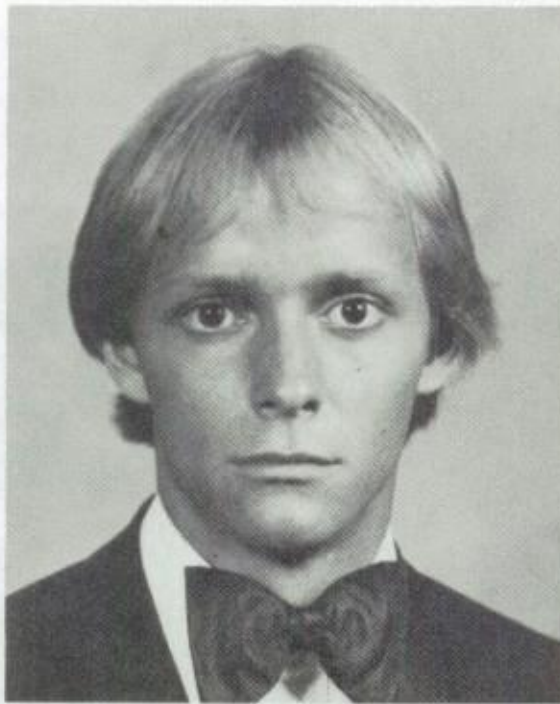

(top) The book hand stuns Senior Karen Rogers.

Now things have changed. Somehow, someway we have come through it all. Four years filled with love, hate, laughter, tears, both good and bad times. But here we are, we've finally made it, we have survived!

We are parting now, not as strangers but as a group bonded by spirit and togetherness. We, the class of 1982, hold firm the belief that the last four years of our lives will never be forgotten.

Juniors

Upperclassmen at last!

Re-entering high school as juniors, we finally began to receive the rewards of our first two years of toil. Not only have we mastered the art of getting from one class to another, but we have figured out how to run to our lockers, get a drink, and exchange vital gossip in the brief five minutes we are allowed between classes. We've now heard what to take and what not to take and we know what to expect in next year's classes.

Most of us are driving now and no longer have to beg Mommy and Daddy for rides. We have received our class rings, are playing varsity sports, and are being recognized as vital parts of our student body. Most of all, we are enjoying being members of the class of '83!

Sophomore

One step up

Being a sophomore is totally confusing. You're one step up from a freshman but not yet an upperclassman. What a dilemma!

By now you've heard about some colleges, but you could care less, and when you hear a senior talk about his GPA you wonder if you have one!

You think you're stuck, but then you smile, take it all in stride and think, it will all come soon enough.

(top right) Sophomore looks stunned by her work.

Only the beginning

After suffering through the first set of bruised ribs from fighting through the locker row, finding that the homework load has tripled, and hearing the words, "Do you have a pass?!" three times while walking through the hall during class time to get a drink of water, a new freshman realizes that high school life may not be all that it's supposed to be. But aside from the discoveries of the more unpleasant aspects of his new school, he finds many surprises that are quite nice. He is now allowed to take the classes that he wants to take, join the activities he wants to join, and get to know people from all different grades.

By the end of the year he has finally come out of his confused state of mind and has become an important part of the student body, but not before realizing that it's only the beginning.

From one Yellow Jacket ...

To Kenny
It was great getting to know you this year in 6th period. I'll always remember your sexy underwear (tan & black, blue & black, and red & black)
(you haven't shown me those - yet)
I'm still waiting for you to take me out!! I hope we get to spend some time together next year
down at the flats!!
Have a fun summer
and don't get too fucked
up. I can't wait to see your crew cut. Do you really get one? I hope
I have you in some classes next year so we can sit together again!! I'll see ya around - Baby!

The Return of King Arthur

Spirit week, the five days before homecoming. This is the time when spirit is at its peak. (with the exception of the Park vs. City game)

The week began with kiddie day then on to fantasy day, King Arthur day, and finally blue and gold day. Each day brought out the creativity of each student that participated.

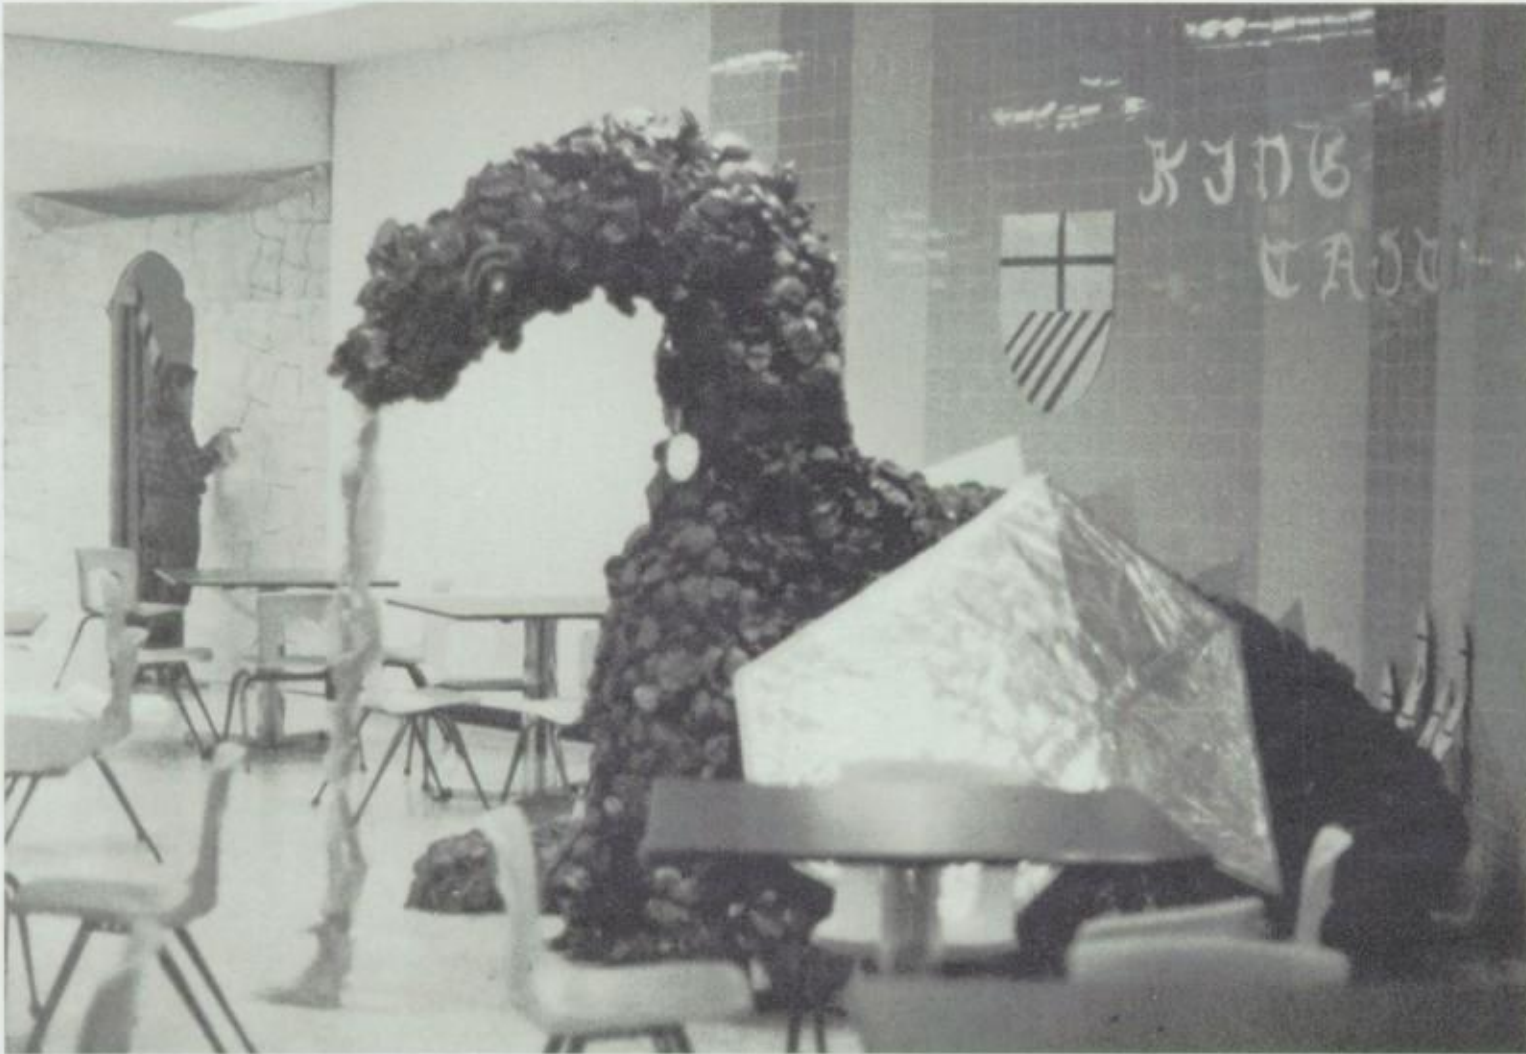

(top left) This small but spirited group of seniors take part in kiddie day.

(next page) The cafeteria is transformed with the help of Jody Keenan and Mrs. Lagos.

The week was drawn to a close when the homecoming game was played and the floats were judged. The seniors took first place, juniors second, and so on.

Then of course there was the homecoming court. The princesses were escorted and driven around the track. The grand finale was when the homecoming queen was announced: senior Ingrid Dehner.

SPORTS

Sports; the extra-curricular activity everyone at one point participates in. From football to soccer, tennis to track, everyone is a part of a sport.

It takes time, money and patience for many parents, and lots of practice and endurance for those trying out for the teams. Attending the first meeting and long grueling practices are what being a jock or jockess is all about.

Despite all the time, money, patience, practice, and after school waiting, year after year more and more people seem to be more enthusiastic about sports. Maybe the recognition is what they want? Or maybe its just the fun of taking part in the sport they enjoy most.

Girls Varsity Basketball

The varsity girls ended the season with a 15-3 record and a decisive victory over Osbourn City 52-31.

Girls J.V. Basketball

The junior varsity girls ended the season with a total 15-4 won-loss record. They defeated City.

Girls Soccer . . . Successful

The girls soccer team season was on the whole successful. The won-loss record was 4-7-1.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNS TO WIN

Cross-country is a sport which requires self-discipline, hard work, and training. The Osbourn Park Cross-Country team gave all of these and more. It paid off. The 81-82 Cross-Country team was one of the finest O.P. will ever see. Led by Kevin Ambrose, Mark Rusciolelli, and Kenny Wilson, the team went undefeated in season competition and swept district, state, and regional meets.

As the season progressed, the team didn't ask if they would win, but rather, by how much they would win. Of course, the unforeseen could always happen — the bus could break down or of the team could break his leg. But short of a miracle (for the opposition) there was nothing that could stop O.P. Cross-Country.

The varsity team this season had many ups and downs. There were only two returning players from last season. Although four of the players did attend camp, the team still lacked depth. The girls finished the season with an 0-10 record.

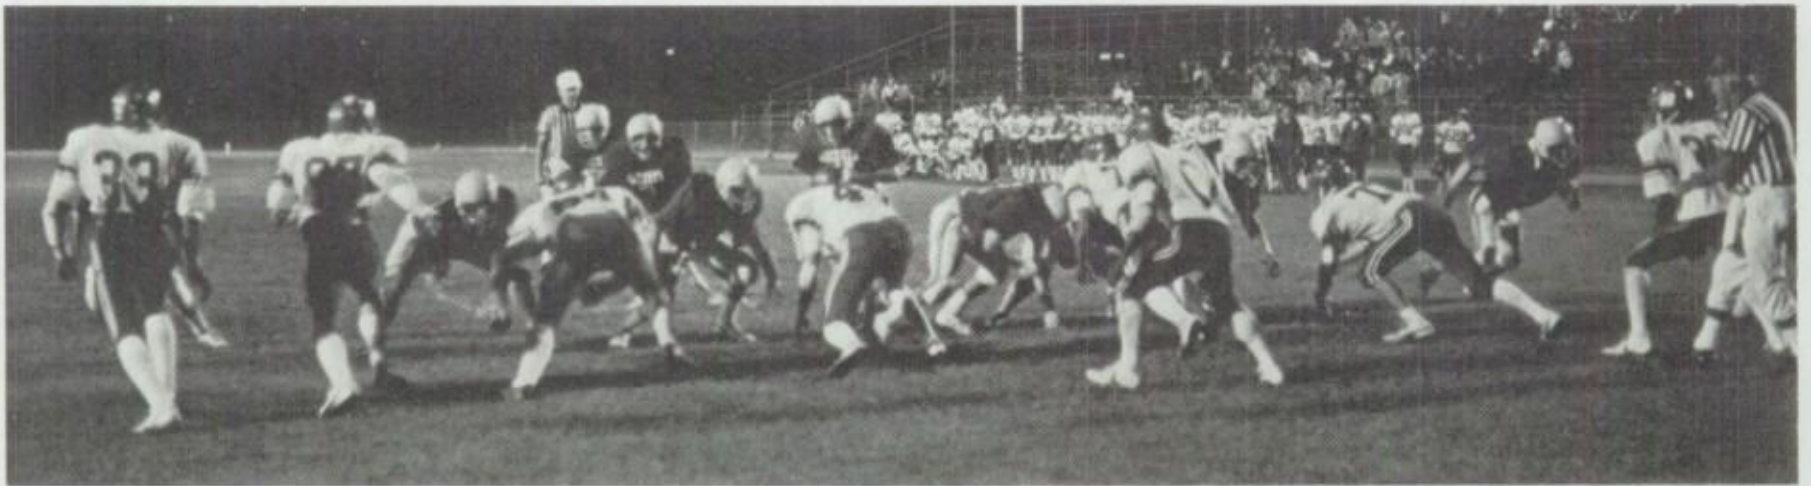

The first J.V. team in the history of Osbourn Park. The team was young, too young for the pressure of the triple A teams they played. Although they finished the season with a 0-10 record they did win experience.

Varsity Football

The varsity football team this year lacked nothing. Many of the players were returnees from last season, and a lot of the players were newcomers. But the team did not lack experience. The team this year had something else going for it besides just experience: a new head coach, Coach Hornfeck. Although the team finished 5-5 for the season and won a victory over City, Coach Hornfeck summed it up when he called it, "a satisfying season."

(top) Football is definitely a contact sport; all that contact for mere pigskin.

J.V. Football

Powder Puff

The Junior and Senior girls every year challenge each other to a game of football, (who says football is only for the guys?). This year the junior girls came out on top. Well what can we seniors say — we know we're the best anyway!!!

(bottom left) The cheerleaders were the most exciting part of the game. The junior cheerleaders had the most spirit and the best costumes.

Varsity Basketball

(Editor's note: The following is based on an actual oration accidentally overheard at a boy's basketball game. The speaker is a fan who wishes not to be identified. Certain words have been altered and the name was changed to protect the innocent.)

"... Defense! Defense! ... Come on, darn it! ... What is this stuff, Ref? How much did the other coach have to pay you not to see that gosh darn foul?! ... Oh, heck! ... Gee whiz! Did you see that call?! FINE! ... Come on Coach, put Johnny in! ... Switch to zone! ... Darn it! ... Three seconds left and we're one darn point behind! ... Oh, SHOOT! There's the buzzer ... What a dog! Boy that stinks!

Form, style, technique are all the talents needed to be a good basketball player, not to mention speed and agility.

J.V. Basketball

Basketball is probably the most intense sport there is at O.P. Along with several disappointing losses as in the game described on page 118, there were many pleasant surprises as well among the boy's varsity, j.v., and freshman teams. With more starting juniors than seniors, a strong bench, enthusiasm, the varsity team steadily improved throughout the season. Whether or not the teams saw their most successful season, they well earned the support and appreciation they received from many devoted fans.

The boy's J.V. team worked hard this season as the pictures on this page tell the story.

The j.v. team has worked hard. The team consisted of several freshman and sophomores. The work and training they did this season will help when they become the Varsity team next season.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics is a sport it takes years to be the best at. The girls' gymnastics team has dedicated time and energy to becoming the best it can be.

Experience Proves Itself Best

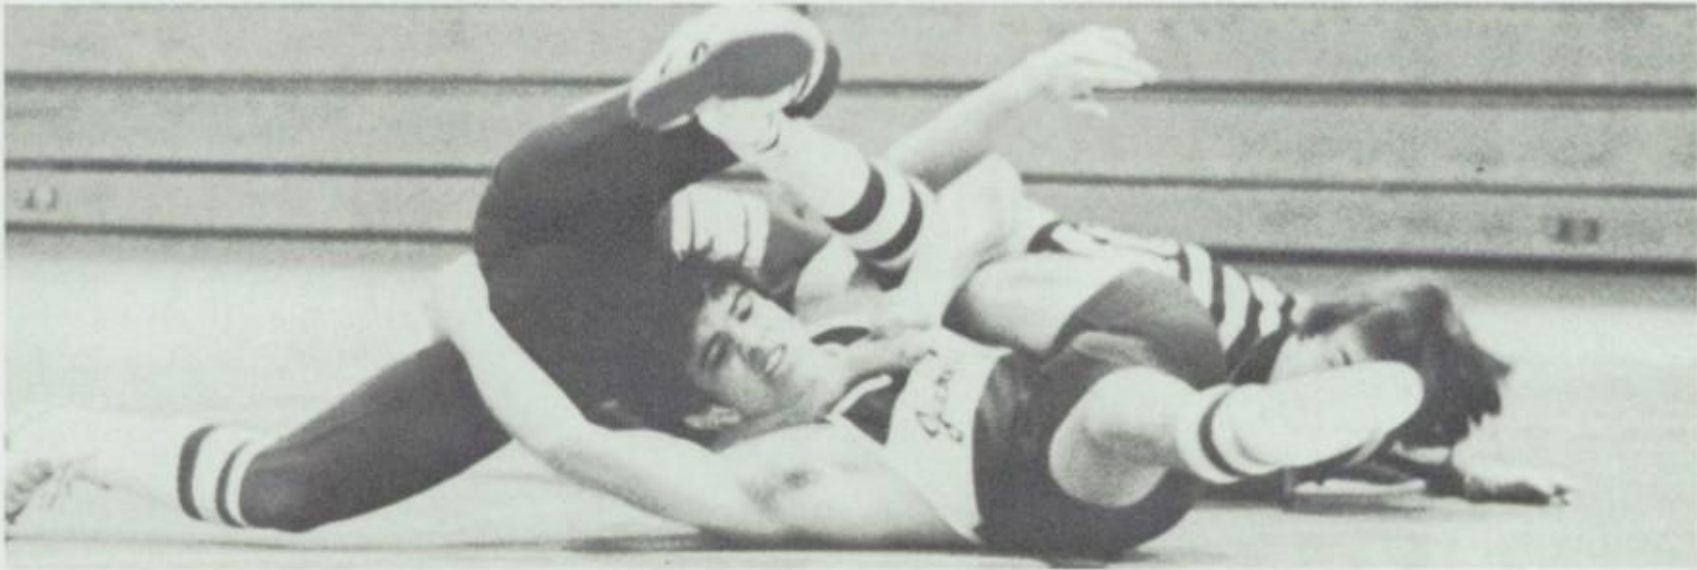

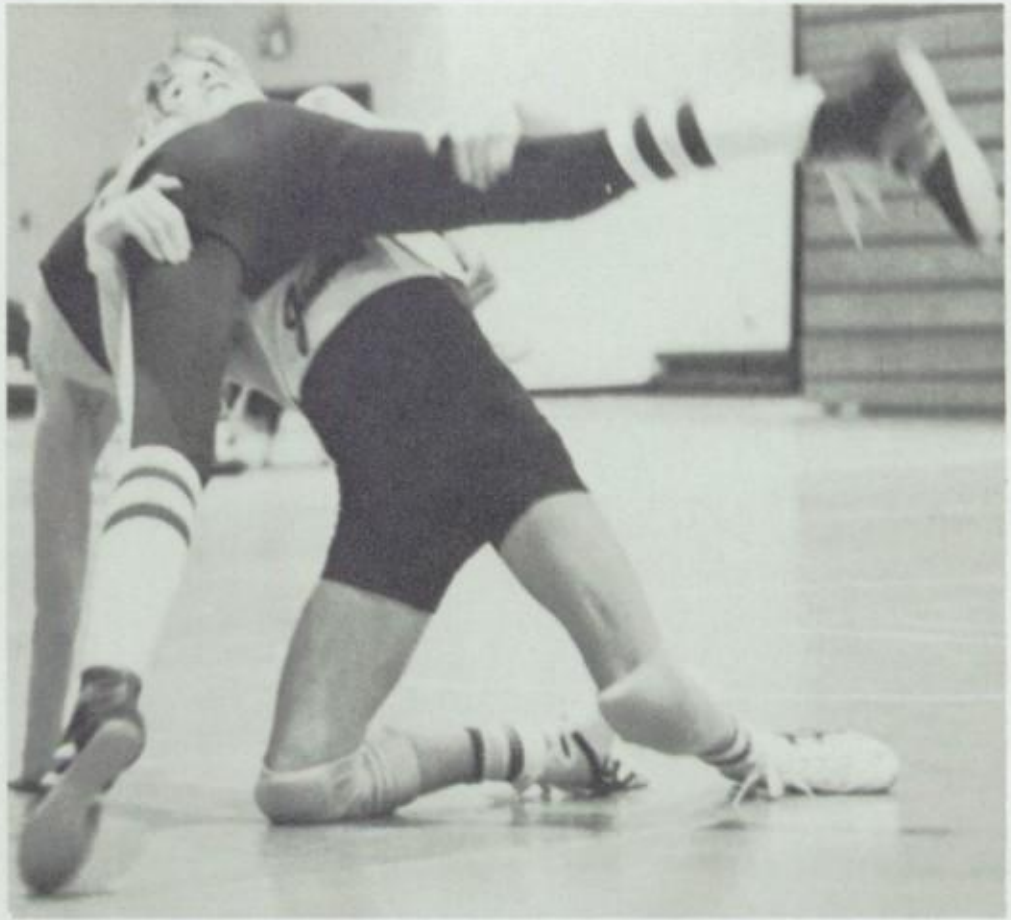

Wrestling is a sport unjustly identified with a "throw-em-in-the-rope" brawl seen on T.V. on Saturday afternoons. Only a small group of people really understand the rules and techniques of modern collegiate wrestling. The majority of these people are the wrestlers themselves.

This year's team, under the coaching of Mr. Foley and Mr. Schlegel, has proved itself to be the best wrestling team ever seen at Osbourn Park. Nine of the twelve varsity wrestlers were back from last year's team, giving it the experience it needed to be the best.

Coach Foley attentively watches Doug Stickles as does the referee.

Running South for the Winter!

Though most of its members competed in only one meet this season, those who practiced with the indoor track team have no regrets. Well, few regrets anyway . . .

The majority of the people joined the team to get in shape for the outdoor season. However many who came to the first meeting quickly lost interest as the brutal winter weather weeded out the "stragglers."

While the immediate rewards were virtually zero, those who followed Coach Carl Kuhn's rigorous practice schedule were well rewarded in the spring. In addition to being in better condition than those who weren't on the team, its members gained valuable experience in a competitive atmosphere.

At the Naval Academy Invitational, the largest meet of the indoor season, a few runners did receive honors. Mark Rusciolelli and Kevin Ambrose received pen sets with a plaque stating the name of event and the place they finished. Mark was awarded his for a first place finish in the two mile and Kevin for a second place finish in the mile.

The success of the indoor season was probably measured best by the performances of its members in the spring. Thus there were few "ducks on the pond" during the indoor track season.

Cheerleaders

Stunts! V-sits! Bases! Chants! What do all these words have in common? They are the jargon of the OP cheerleaders. The cheerleaders work hard to achieve the level of perfection we all see at games and pep rallies. During the summer, they attend a camp, where they learn new routines and techniques. During the school year they spend long hours after school perfecting these routines and techniques, striving to make OP the most spirited school ever! A cheerleader is not just another pretty face — she is someone dedicated to herself, her fellow cheerleaders, and you!

Pom Poms

The flags, the majorettes and Pompoms all have one thing in common — they all are the best! OP has award winning majorettes, flags and pompom squads. They all practice hard and take their performing seriously.

Activities

At The Heart Of High School Life . . .

Who could imagine high school life without the many activities that keep it interesting? We would all surely miss the Lionettes and the Key Clubs. There'd be no Spirit Chains the week before the big "City" game, and without a Pep Club, no posters saying "Pluck Those Eagles!". The Holiday Season would go by without a music concert. Plays would be unheard of with no Drama Society. The girls would never get the chance to show how brutal they could be and the boys would always have to WONDER what it would be like to be a cheerleader if there were no Varsity Club to sponsor the Powder Puff Football Game, and no Student-Faculty Basketball Game, either.

Students with outstanding academic achievement would go unrecognized. Students interested in vocational industry, marketing and distribution, and business fields would find themselves very unprepared without VICA, DECA and FBLA. "Graduation" would mean going out to our mailboxes and picking up our diplomas!

School clubs offer something for everyone. They are the very heart of what makes school a memorable experience, rather than just a 7:40 to 1:45 daily mental exercise. Of course, the "classic" high school memories, Homecoming and Prom, would not be available to us without clubs such as the Student Council and the Junior Class. And, last, but not least, what memories of high school could we carry with us without treasured copies of our school newspaper and, of course, our yearbooks?

(left) One activity that NO ONE has heard of is the Girl's JV Football team, which has Karen Rogers as guard, Jean Crowley as quarterback, and Debbie Saffer as center. The girls had a great season of 0-0-0.

All In a Year's Work

While most students were still spending their last leisurely hours basking in the sun at the swimming pool this summer, members of the Student Council were already back at school helping with Teacher In-Service, mailing student schedules, and preparing for Freshman Orientation. No sooner than the freshman had been oriented were plans for the annual magazine drive put into effect.

Before the close of the magazine drive, which proved to be successful once again, it was time to prepare for the "Main Event" of the season, Homecoming '81. Student Council members wondered how they'd EVER manage to coordinate all of the last-minute details with such a short amount of time! But with a little "royal magic", Homecoming went very smoothly.

The school year certainly didn't end there. After an all-too-brief respite, plans to revive the previously inactive Inter-Club Council were made. The ICC, made up of leading members of all student organizations in the school and headed by the Student Council vice-president, was immediately given the task of turning in constitutions. Plans were made to form committees to maintain the new Activities Bulletin Board purchased by the Student Council, to start sending club news home to students and parents, and to investigate the possibility of purchasing a set of dishes which could be used by various clubs for banquets and dinners.

Meanwhile, the Student Council busied itself decorating for the holiday season and preparing for the "Bloodmobile" and the Faculty Breakfast after semester exams. A Valentine's Dance was also planned, as well as the second annual Leadership Awards Banquet, which was designed to give recognition to the two outstanding members of each club.

All of these activities, which kept members of the Student Council busy all year were quite a challenge not only to them, but to the new Student Council Advisor, Ms. Lagos, as well. She has been welcomed wholeheartedly by the Student Council.

Yellow Jacket

"Hudd! Where is the copy from the Potomac News? Did it come back yet?" "Did you get the layout for the centerfold done yet?"

These are only a few of the conversations that take place in the Journalism room. The production of the Yellow Jacket goes through several changes before it goes to print.

Oops! A mistake

ALL WE WENT THROUGH

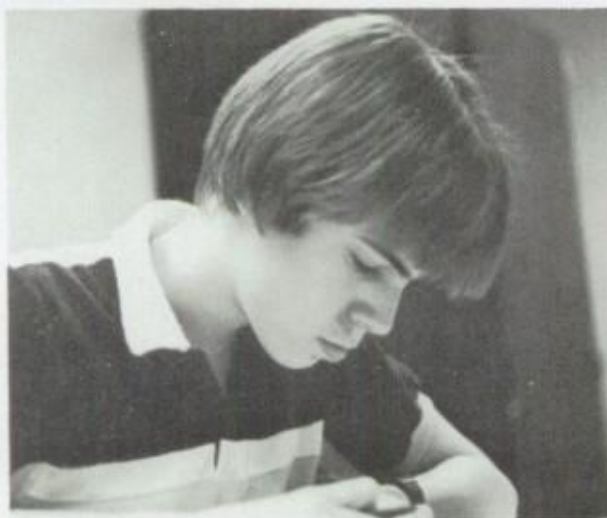

This is for JoAnn, Karen, Connie, Danny, Dell, John, Amy, Kathy, and Miss Dongoski.

Remember the color — it was ALL WRONG!! Staying here til 8:30 to re-do all that work!! Remember the order of the year, Karen . . . "No clip art! And I mean it." How about the 3 times at Liberia and Euclid and the 3 times at Lake Jackson and 234. Then the 4th time! CRASH! OH-OH. Then came the quote of the year, "I think we better call the police!" How profound. By the way, it didn't help. BLAAA!! What about the race in the parking lot!! The time my batteries went dead because I left my lights on!

These pictures sum it all up!

Danny, what about the ruler you broke. The same one that Karen finished up!! How about the calls of HELP from our developing friend Fearless! Karen, don't forget our walk. We should get a patent on it!! Mr. Payne scaring us the night we left late. OH, remember the week we had for one deadline? Connie how about the sports and activities pictures. Dongoski! Bet you didn't think I was going to write. I'll never forget our long, long talk. It made us closer! Thanks for putting up with all this!!

To the staff: Amy, you can have it! Karen, don't forget the plant. It's still after me. Connie, keep on shootin! Danny, well, what can we say? Dell, Thanks. Karen is going to will you her proper cropper!! John, the king of Miscellaneous. Kathy — you're great!! Thanks.

Class Officers

Class officers take on a heavy responsibility. They have to organize fund raisers and collect dues, sponsor proms and talent shows. Without this handful of people there would be no school functions.

Honor Society Places Emphasis On Service

How do you become a member of the Honor Society? All you need is to be at least a junior and have a 3.6 grade point average. If you are a senior, you only need a 3.4!

Another important qualification for National Honor Society membership is to be a good servant to the community. With a greater emphasis on service this year, the Honor Society members met at Annaburg Manor to visit with some of the patients, many of whom rarely receive visitors. The visit was enjoyed by all.

The Honor Society also raised money through bake sales that was used to finance two scholarships donated each year to members of the graduating class.

Varsity Club Deserves Recognition

Some of the biggest attractions to school sports are certificates, awards, and, of course, varsity letters. Few athletes think about the Varsity Club's contribution to these things as they receive the rewards for their efforts. The certificates, awards, and varsity letters are just a few of the things the Varsity Club is involved in that promote school spirit. The club is also behind the Powder Puff Football Game, the Student-Faculty Basketball Game, and the Athletic Awards Banquet.

With Mark Rusciolelli as president for the second year in a row and Coach Kuhn as advisor, the Varsity Club has continued to be a very important part of high school athletics.

Pep Club Succeeds Against The Odds

"Where is everyone?"

That's what you might say as you walk in on one of the Pep Club meetings after school. But after talking to President Brenda Garner or Vice-President Betsy Ross you would learn that they are always like this.

Even though there has not been an abundance of participation this year, the Pep Club still has been a strong spirit in the school. They've made name tags for the varsity athletics, signs and posters, and antennas for the student body to show their spirit at all the games.

Sponsored by Ms. Lawrence, the Pep Club has shown us all that it is not impossible to overcome adverse situations.

"Lion — W H O?!"

"Hey, look at that girl across the hall!"

"Wow! She must have gotten up awfully late! She still has her robe on and she's not wearing her make-up!"

"Nah, that's just part of the initiation to Lionettes."

"Lion — W H O?! She must be awfully dedicated!"

Those junior and senior girls who had enough guts to come to school dressed as if preparing to go out and then to come to a football game in dresses were admitted to the Lionettes Club.

Lionettes is a community service organization sponsored by the local Lion's Club. This year's group consisted of about twenty girls who devoted a lot of their time to raising money for various worthy causes. Their main projects were fund-raising drives for giving food to underprivileged families during Thanksgiving and Christmas, giving to the eyebank, and awarding scholarships to those who qualify.

Key Club Gets a New Start

One great change this year was the re-establishment of the Key Club. Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, the Key Club is similar to its "sister club", the Lionettes. Although lacking in operational funds, the Key Club has managed to succeed in drawing a considerable number of members. Their first project was to serve refreshments at the concessions stand during the basketball games of the Holiday Classics Tournament. With projected fundraisers, the club is promised a bright future.

"Tout Le Monde Aime Le Français!"

Sponsored by Mrs. Thompson, there is a new French Club this year. Meeting in the Foreign Language department every Wednesday after school, this club gives students a chance to use the French Language in new and exciting ways. The group consists of about twenty members from all levels of French.

The biggest event held this year was a Christmas party. In addition to the members, the faculty was invited. Traditional French dishes were brought in and enjoyed by everyone.

Also discussed for later in the year was the possibility that the club could take a tour through the French Embassy in Washington.

French club members: Renee Morgan, Chrissy Mitchell, Hope Hackett, Nancye McKay, Jenny Brauning, Amy Kohler, Debby Aruscavage, Louis Korpics, Jennifer Young, Wendy Wilson, Kim Korpics, Lee Ann Morano, Claire Sensel.

I. A. Club

Teen Counselors Find Themselves Needed

"Oh, goodie! The Teen Counselors are here!"

As a Teen Counselor, you are greeted with this kind of enthusiasm every other Tuesday by twenty-some bright young faces. You'd never expect a greeting like that from your fifth period teacher! It can send you off on quite an ego trip, even if you ARE the only reason their math test has been postponed.

Still you wonder, as you begin the weekly discussion — this one about the dangers of drug abuse — if your being there will ever help any of those kids at all. Then you happen to glance over at the kid in the corner who looks like he's had plenty of first-hand experience with the subject already.

"Wow . . . I never knew it could be THAT bad!" he whispers to himself.

Then you understand what being a Teen Counselor is all about.

A "Remarkable Incident" — Three Clubs In One!

The ever talented Drama Society with mentor Mr. Snyder.

Can't you see the Drama in the faces of these students?

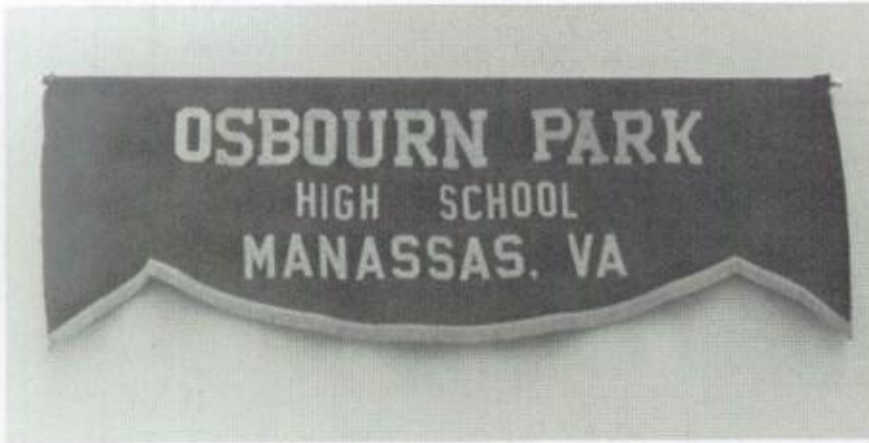

The Drama Society has changed quite a bit this year. It has now expanded into three different clubs. The first club, The Drama Society, consists of everyone who is interested in the actual acting involved in presenting a play. The second club, The Drama Club, gives those with "stage-fright" a chance to participate through the business and back-stage aspects of presenting a play.

The biggest change this year is the establishment of the third club, The Drama Society Honorary, which consists only of the students who are qualified to letter. In order to be eligible to letter in Drama, a member must have achieved at least fifty points under the new points system.

The club's volume is also a notable change. Much larger than ever before, its fall production held a cast of twenty-six people and thirty-five people participated in the technical crews. Thanks to the efforts of those people and the direction of Mr. Snyder, the Drama Society presented "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners."

Band

Drum Majors

Middle: French horns, Trombones, and Tubas

If you've ever taken a close look at the band you'll notice the same people with different instruments at any given time. Many of the band students play different instruments which they switch at notice from their teacher Mr. Mesite. The band is so large that it is split into three groups (these groups consist of basically the same people): the Stage band, Concert band, and Marching band. These groups perform for football games, festivals, and pep rallies.

The Halls Are Alive!

Drums are beat. Bases are plucked. Voiced are heard from every direction. The halls of the Music Department become alive with the noises of last-minute preparations' for a concert.

"Where's my tie? I can't find my tie!" yells a frantic flute.

"Does anybody have any blush?" calls a viola.

"What am I gonna do? I broke a string!" squeals a violin.

"Don't play!" quips a trumpet as he trips over his untied shoelace.

"Who's got my lemon?" demands an angry baritone.

"Sorry! We sort of used it all by accident," replies an alto.

"We'll buy you a new one tomorrow," adds a soprano as she hurries from the room.

Varsity Choir

"There's a run in my stocking!" cries a clarinet.
 "There's a run in mine, too!" exclaims a tenor.
 "This isn't the Madrigal Feast!" laughs another.
 "You wore the wrong uniform!"
 "I WANT my LEMON!" growls the baritone.
 "Hey, they can hear us out there ... they're ready for us to go on!"

Suddenly there is silence. Scores of people take their designated places in line. The line moves gracefully onto the stage and the evenings performance at long last begins. The program runs smoothly, with mistakes only the meticulous directors seem to notice. These men, Mr. Council, Mr. Criswell, and Mr. Mesite, each receive enthusiastic ovations by the audience for almost magically turning a mass of chaotic high school students into not just two choirs, an orchestra, and a band, but an ensemble of fine musicians.

The End!!

1982, the way it was: All the times we've eaten with our friends. The rickety bus rides to and from school. The coaches, who are teachers too, who watch the games and help out. The powder puff football game, and all the football games. The squads we were a part of in one way or another. The junk foods we got a chance to buy in the cafeteria this year (what a welcome change.) The games we cheered at, as a part of the crowd or as a cheerleader. Talking to Miss Hatter about that overdue book, you know, the one that's been overdue for a year. Hacking with a real good buddy. Or the teams we were a part of, and don't forget the lockers we complained about . . .

Watch out, Ingrid and Kim! That beaver may have rabies!

... The trophies we've won, the buses again (just think Pam, this'll all be over very soon.) Activities that aren't school related that we participated in. Another bus, but this one is leaving! After all the things we do, in school or out, it all comes down to goodbye, be it just for the summer or for good. For the seniors, our "ghosts" will remain, (and maybe a glove or two), we'll be remembered somehow or by someone. And finally to all the underclassmen, chin up, little buckaroos, someday you too will see Osbourn Park in your rear view mirror!!

NOTIFICATION OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

As required by federal laws and regulations, the Virginia Department of Education does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, handicapping conditions, or natural origin in employment or in its educational program and activities. Persons who have reason to believe they have been discriminated against may seek remediation through the regular appeal procedures.

TO KENNY,
ONE COOL
GUY WHO I HAVE ALWAYS LIKED AS A
FRIEND FOR 14 YEARS
WE STAY FRIENDS FOR 14 MORE YEARS
RAY BOWERS

Kenny,
Best wishes.
Mrs. Beverly

To a cool
guy good luck
next year. It has been nice knowing you hope to see you next year.
Your friend always
May Sue Bell

To Kenny,
It's been three long years that I've known you and in that time we really had some good times. It has been great to know you +
I hope we share friends in the future that we even more so. Hope to be able to spend the night over at your house if my parents brack down and let me so I can get drunk and go wild. Have fun and stay cool. Hope to see you next year when you take "4" periods
- hopefully when we get the IBM job

Frenzy
Cool

henry.

You're a really nice guy! I'm glad I met ya! I hope we have some classes together next year! I hope you have a nice summer & may all your dreams go your way!

You're a very special friend who I'll always remember! Thanks for helping me adjust to Osborn Park! You were the 1st of all my friends I met, Don't change the way you are, stay nice, sweet & friendly and you'll go far in life! I hope to see ya over the summer some, but I probably won't, - you'll be going wild with Jimmy & your girl friends.

Don't forget all the good times we all had in Domingos 5th period English class! She may never be the same again after our class is finished with her!

Keep in touch during the summer. 368-3359.
Friends always!

"83" Love,

Carla Beckenbaugh

P.S. if ya forget what I look like, turn to p. 15!

Carla
